Heroes of the month
- Grateful thanks were expressed by a father regarding patrol of 23rd April (below) Heather, Aileen, Jimmy and Catherine

Excerpt from email (used by permission)

"I have to thank the members from your organisation for the help and understanding last night when looking after my daughter. She was the one that was asleep in a doorway at xxxxx nightclub absolutely drunk. When I was told about the state she was in I came down to get her but couldn't find her. I started to get even more worried about her safety as I was a police officer for 23 years and have seen everything. I was surprised when someone else answered her phone but relieved and glad that she had the street pastors looking after her. I know what your organisation does so was pleased and relieved that the pastors had found her and were able to look after her and keep her safe until I got there to pick her up. Unfortunately I forgot to get their names to thank them as I was more intent on getting her in the car and home. Again I thank your organisation and would like to thank the pastors that were looking after her and keeping her safe until I got there"

Well done team !!

Prayer Support

Before going out on patrol we are blessed by the presence of our support team members. One Saturday before we departed into the cold, dark night we were doubly blessed by the words of the song "They Need Christ". We would like to share this with you as we sensed it spoke deep into our hearts about the diverse range of needy people we come across ..

(used by permission of Salvation Army)

There are people hurting in the world out there. There are children crying and no one to care. And they'll go on hurting in the world out there, And they'll go on dying, drowning in despair, And they'll go on crying, that's unless we care! They need you. They need me. They need Christ.

There are people living who would rather die. And their Christian neighbours simply pass them by. There are people sitting by a silent phone. People cold and hungry, people left alone. Suicides for reasons that remain unknown. They need you. . They need me. They need Christ.

There's the prostitute, and there's the prisoner, too. There's the skid row fella who won't look at you, The compulsive gambler dreaming of his yacht, And the lad that's stealing just to get his "shot", And the girl that's pregnant and pretends she's not: They need you. They need me. They need Christ.

There are runaways who want a place to go, There are alcoholics who don't seem to know, There are Godless people who have lost their way, And they need God's love but they're afraid to say. If we close our eyes perhaps they'll go away Without you, without me, without Christ. – John Gowan
