T in the Park

Some Pals we met on Friday evening

Below – From Sunshine to Mud

Treated the Main stage area with chips – did it work No !!! Another fun year at T in the Park. Got car stuck in the mud at least twice but enthusiastic stewards pushed me out. Only thing is I forgot to wind up window – guess where the mud went ??!! Most of those we spoke with were well behaved, enjoying the music and the atmosphere of the festival. Signposting had improved but there were still a number of individuals who were anxious to get home after the night time events and couldn't easily find their way to the public car park or public transport. That's where we stepped in, although to be honest, had difficulty in the dark myself. Thankfully my colleagues on the radio guided us in. Overall I felt our presence as Street Pastors was valued by the other services and security organisations as they were keen to engage with us as we patrolled. As two stewards drove jovially past in their wee buggy we got thrown a Chunky Kit Kat in appreciation. Yummy !

RAIL PASTORS Training Day – Police HQ, Glenrothes

Street Pastors gather with representatives from Ascension Trust, Police Scotland, Samaritans, British Transport Police, Network Rail, Scottish Business Resilience Centre and the charity Justenough.uk for a successful training day in preparation for embarking on trains and platforms on the Fife Circuit, including Waverley, during the coming months. Look out for the “light blue” uniforms – caps illustrated above !!
