MARCH

Easter blessings to one and all !!

Heroes of the month ~ thumbs up for Suzie and Phyllis ~ a grateful young man insisted we have our photo taken as we came to his aid when his mobile phone ran “out of juice” and we allowed him to use ours to organize his lift. ....(permission given to use photo)

PATROLS

The last two patrols in March proved quieter than normal due to the unexpected closure of a local night club with the subsequent flow of pedestrian traffic being reduced. Here is an excerpt from the leader's report of 26th March – Easter weekend.

“ it was a very different patrol as xxxxx had closed down. Not far from base one SP noticed a homeless man shivering and scared so we spent over 1/2hr with him and bought him a panini and latte coffee. He was very isolated as he was scared of other beggars. A few hundred yards away another new street beggar - a woman just out of prison begging so she could buy Easter eggs for her children. We spent a while encouraging her and making sure she had the right support. Another street beggar was grateful for cake and Easter eggs and a chat about what new life would mean for him - he is trying to get his driver's licence back so he can get work.

We gave out about 30 little Easter eggs which prompted some conversations about new life and had good, humorous chats outside a local club. It was bitterly cold especially at the railway station. ”

A "FRUITFUL" story

One of our Management Committee changed church in recent times. At this new church he noticed a familiar face. On enquiring further he discovered he knew the young man who had now come to know Jesus and had been baptized.

Some time ago the young man had engaged in spiritual conversations with Street Pastors outside a Kirkcaldy night club. Hopefully we were a link in the chain which led him to Jesus.
