Intimations

This morning we welcome the members of Bennochty Guild for their annual dedication. We also welcome Alan Urquhart, who is deputizing for our organist, Brian Booth.

A few copies of the Autumn/Winter Christian Aid Magazine are available on the literature stand in the church vestibule.

The Fife Festival of Music 5th Family Fun Day is this afternoon, 19th November at Viewforth High School from 12 noon until 4 p.m. You can drop in at any time, with "mini workshops and maxi fun". It is a musical fun day for all the family with workshops and performances.

The Newsletter will be available for delivery next Sunday, 26th November, along with FWO envelopes for 2018. Material required today please.

The Kirk Session meets tomorrow night, Monday 20th November at 7 p.m. in the St Andrew's Hall.

The Guild meet this Tuesday, 21st November when their guest, Hannah Rankine, will be talking about 'Care for the Family'.

Christmas Afternoon Teas: Tickets are available from members of the Women's Group for the Christmas Teas taking place in the Methven Hall this Saturday, 25th November from 2 - 4 pm. Adults £4 and Children £2. Raffle prizes too!

Our next informal communion takes place after worship next Sunday, 26th November, in the Prayer Room.

The Pastoral Care Group meet on Tuesday 28th November at 10 a.m. in the Elgin Room.

The next @ the café studies is on 30th November, at the Olive branch café at 11 am. All welcome.

New Quiz: Thanks to everyone who tried the 'Are you good at Sums?' Quiz. £54 raised (108 sold) and the winner was Mrs C. Aitken of Viewforth Avenue. The quiz now available is entitled 'Carry on! - it's all about Cars!'. Good luck to all. Deadline is Friday 1st December.

Poinsettias in the Church on Sundays 10th and 17th December

If you wish to have a poinsettia(s) in the Church for a friend or in memory of a loved one, please put your name on the Poinsettia List in the vestibule of the Church by Sunday 3 December. These plants will decorate the Church on Sundays 10 and 17 December. After the Service on 17 December you can take the plants home. The cost will be £6 and these are large plants. Payment should be made to Senga Booth.

Community Bunting

We hope everyone is happy with the end result of the bunting project on display in the Methven Hall. 73 flags were made raising £365 for new lighting in the sanctuary. A photo album of all who took part is available in the hall after the service today and in future in the church office. The bunting can be hired for community events for a small fee. Thanks to all who participated.

Bennochty Parish Church

Order of Service

Sunday 19th November 2017

Welcome to Bennochty Parish Church. We hope as you gather for worship this morning you take a moment to say Good Morning to those sitting nearby. If you are a visitor, we invite you to complete the visitor card which you will find at the end of the pew, and to join us for refreshments in the Methven hall after the service. There are activity sheets and crayons for children in the vestibule. Please help yourself or ask one of the elders near the front door.

Do you have any old spectacles lying in a drawer? If so, you could be helping millions of people in the developing world who simply need spectacles to lead a normal life. Vision Aid Overseas is a charity who send teams of volunteer professional Optometrists and Dispensing Opticians to carry out eye tests and provide spectacles appropriate to the patients needs. A box is in the vestibule and all spectacles will be gratefully received.

Gift Boxes - The amount received in the boxes from 1/10/17 - 5/11/17 was £53.71, making the total from January to date £378.85. Please keep saving your small change for the gift boxes. The proceeds from them goes into our church funds. Gift boxes are available in the church vestibule if you wish one. Thank you to all who continue to fill the boxes.
