United services in central Kirkcaldy, July 2017: "In the wilderness."

Today's theme is, "obscured by clouds: the presence of God"

40 years in the wilderness the people of God had to wander, but made great discoveries about themselves and about God.

One fascinating story of discovery from one service to the next. Four different Sundays - one joint worship and theme.

The Church of Scotland in Kirkcaldy Central welcomes all. Something for all ages. Still to come...

July 23rd in Linktown Church: "to flourish, desert the golden calf"

July 30th in Abbotshall Church: "Worship - tradition that moves"

We welcome members and friends from the town centre churches to Bennoch Church this morning. Tea and coffee will be available in the Methven Hall after the service and you are welcome to stay.

Our next morning worship in this building will be on Sunday 6th August at 11 a.m.

Many thanks to the Worship Team for the service on 2nd June, for the different format and for the enjoyable hymns and readings. We appreciate the time you take to prepare the services.

Latest Quiz: The latest quiz entitled 'Tourist Attractions in the British Isles' is available this morning in the Methven Hall. Deadline is Friday 11th August. Good Luck!

I was pleased to receive the lovely flowers from the Church on Sunday for my '90th Birthday'. They've been greatly admired. Thank you. Mrs. Jessie Neish
