

This month we are reflecting on the theme of sacrifice as we mark the season of Remembrance.

SUNDAY November 1st: Hebrews 13 v 1-19

Many people have sacrificed their freedom for others, and suffer as a result. Remember them in your prayers today.

Monday November 2nd: Romans 12 v 1-12

What does it mean to be a living sacrifice? There are many answers to this, but one is that we use our time and talents in serving God, how can you do this?

Tuesday November 3rd: John 3 v 1-16

God sacrificed His Son on the cross for all of us, the ultimate sacrifice paid for our sins. Reflect on that sacrifice today and thank God for this most precious gift.

Wednesday November 4th: Hosea 6

The prophet Hosea is longing for love and not sacrifice. Jesus sacrificed himself because of love. Praise Him in prayer for his courage and commitment.

Thursday November 5th: Genesis 22

Sacrifices in the time of Abraham and Isaac were very different to what we expect nowadays. Pray about the sacrifices you are making at the moment.

Friday November 6th: Philippians 2

Looking out for others has been very important during the Covid19 pandemic, some people have sacrificed a great deal for others. Give thanks for them today.

Saturday November 7th: Ephesians 5

Jesus gave his all for us. He didn't just go the extra mile, he gave everything He had. Reflect on his sacrifice in your prayers today.

SUNDAY November 8th: John 15

On this Remembrance Sunday remember the sacrifice of millions of people from all around the world who gave their lives in the service of their country.

Monday November 9th: 1 Peter 2

Pray today for the people who are an example of a living sacrifice, and give a lot of themselves to help others.

Tuesday November 10th: Psalm 51

Remember in prayer people who have sacrificed a lot for their family or friends.

Wednesday November 11th 1 Corinthians 13

There is no greater love than to lay down your life for your friends says Jesus in John 15. On this Remembrance Day let us not forget the love that has been given, treasured, cherished and received over the years.

Thursday November 12th: Mark 10

Pray for people who need to hear about the sacrifice that Jesus gave for them, pray that they might hear the Gospel message and act on it.

Friday November 13th: Hebrews 10

In this reading Paul reminds us not to keep on sinning after we have heard the Gospel message. Pray today for the strength to keep to God's way, now and always.

Saturday November 14th: Galatians 2

Jesus' sacrifice on the cross was for all of us – past, present and future. Reflect on this in your prayers today and remember He loves you so deeply that He gave His life for you.

SUNDAY November 15th: John 14

In your prayers today seek guidance for the path you should follow through life. Jesus promises that He is the way, the truth and the life, what should you do?

Monday November 16th: Titus 2

Pray for all those who seek to keep the peace in our world – Armed Forces, Police and Law Enforcement Agencies.

Tuesday November 17th: Luke 9

Give thanks for those who save lives on a daily basis, remembering our NHS in particular, but all medical teams.

Wednesday November 18th: Jonah 2

Pray for those who work with charities and organisations who seek to bring calm and peace to our world.

Thursday November 19th: John 1

John the Baptist knew Jesus was the One the world was waiting for. He sacrificed his relationship with others and stuck his head above the parapet to make clear who Jesus was. Pray for the modern day John the Baptist's!

Friday November 20th: Exodus 20

We may not need to sacrifice animals or other offerings, but we are asked to give a fitting proportion of our time, skills and money. Pray about what you are offering at this time, is it a fitting gift to God?

Saturday November 21st: Genesis 8

God said He would not sacrifice living creatures again after the flood. Yet we still see natural disasters. Why do we still see them? Share your thoughts in your prayers today .

SUNDAY November 22nd: Matthew 12

Who do you need to forgive today? Share your thoughts in prayer today.

Monday November 23rd: Matthew 10

Do you feel worthy today? Worthy of God's love? Worthy of your family's love? Take comfort in your prayers today that Jesus knows you are worthy, valued, and loved.

Tuesday November 24th: 1 John 1

Give thanks today for the positive, encouraging and nurturing people you are blessed to know.

Wednesday November 25th: Acts 3

Praise God for the people of faith, those who trust fully in God for everything that they have, and do in life.

Thursday November 26th : Romans 5

Pray for the people who work for reconciliation between people and nations.

Friday November 27th: 1 John 5

Jesus' message is simple, love God and love your neighbour, but many people find that hard to do. Pray that more people would reach out for that love.

Saturday November 28th: Romans 6

Pray that we will learn the lesson of being forgiven by Jesus, and be thankful for it.

SUNDAY November 29th: 2 Corinthians 5

We are blessed to be unique, cared for and loved. God has made each one of us with care and creativity, we are His "new creation". Give thanks in your prayers for this wonderful feeling.

Monday November 30th: Romans 8

God gave all that He had, even His own Son. Praise God for this gift, the ultimate sacrifice, in your prayers today.